LETTERS OF SUPPORT

June 29, 2021

Dear FIFA President Infantino:

It is with great pride in the examples set by New York City and New Jersey that we submit this Human Rights Report in support of our joint bid to host the 2026 FIFA World Cup™.

The City of New York and the State of New Jersey both gain our strength from the tremendous diversity of our people. Lured by the vision of the Statue of Liberty, we have welcomed millions of people from around the world who have looked to our shores and our communities to build better lives, escape persecution and war, secure an education, and set a strong foundation for the next generation.

The American Dream still lives here and, to ensure it continues, we have endeavored to implement policies and laws that see our diversity as among our driving strengths.

As this report enumerates, we have undertaken efforts to ensure equal access in housing, employment, and health care; enhance relations between members of law enforcement and the communities they serve; protect the rights of our immigrant communities against discrimination or exploitation; expand opportunities for voters to play a role in our democratic processes; and support the rights of workers to organize and to earn fair and livable wages.

We know that, like any city or state, we are not perfect and have more work to do. But mirroring the opening words of the United States Constitution, our aim is to "form a more perfect union." This work will likely never cease. But by any measure, we have raised the bar and set a standard for others, both across the United States and around the globe.

For billions of fans worldwide, a love of football has long been a unifying factor – in some areas, perhaps the only thing that brings people of different races, languages, religions, and traditions together. The beauty of the New York City-New Jersey region is that this unifying spirit is found on pitches and fields right here in our own backyards.

It will be more than a quarter-century since our region was last able to highlight our capabilities on the World Cup stage, as a host site in 1994 for the men and 1999 for the women. Even then, we put our great diversity on display in tremendous matches that drew diverse and passionate crowds.

We are again ready to put our region's love of football on the world stage, this time as the primary host. And, in doing so, we hope to showcase all that remains good in our world, through sport.

Sincerely,

LETTERS OF SUPPORT

Dear FIFA Host City Bid Committee,

NJ/NY Gotham City FC, a member team of the National Women's Soccer League, writes to express our full and enthusiastic support for the New York/New Jersey World Cup 2026 Bid.

New York and New Jersey have long been destinations and safe havens for people of different backgrounds, faiths and countries of origin. New York and New Jersey are uniquely positioned to host games in one of the most inclusive and multicultural areas in the world, let alone the United States. As a group of incredibly diverse athletes who all are playing in this region, and feel comfortable and supported doing so, we view the World Cup as an opportunity to bring attention to the importance of hosting mega sporting events in environments that respect, protect and promote human rights - both in policies and in practice.

Moreover, as we have seen hatred and violence sweep our nation, we have seen legislation across the country targeting minority communities. New York and New Jersey have some of the most progressive and strong comprehensive anti-discrimination laws in the country, ensuring that all players, coaches and fans would be safe and welcomed in our region.

Now more than ever, holding World Cup matches in cities and states that have comprehensive nondiscrimination protections in place is of utmost importance to ensure that players, coaches, and fans are able to enjoy the World Cup in a discrimination-free environment.

New York City Football Club.

Dear FIFA Host City Bid Committee,

I am writing on behalf of New York City Football Club, a Club founded in the five boroughs of New York City and the 20th team to enter Major League Soccer in 2015. We are all extremely excited by the 2026 World Cup coming to Canada, Mexico and United States and NYCFC would like to express our full and committed support for the New York/New Jersey World Cup 2026 bid. We know this groundbreaking World Cup will be a seminal moment in the growth of this sport that we are all so deeply passionate about.

Supporting the vibrant and diverse communities across New York City has been a significant focus of our Club since our inception. As just one example, this year we will complete a five-year project that will bring 50 mini soccer pitches to underserved neighborhoods across the City. Every day, we are fortunate to see first-hand the passion for soccer in this region and how this uniquely global sport can bring communities together like no other. The power of soccer to unify and bring together cultures, languages, backgrounds, and religions is vital and the foundation of our Club's mission to improve lives through soccer.

There is a rich and esteemed history of soccer in this region, and we couldn't be prouder to be part of this history and represent this City and area that is undeniably unique. The enthusiasm and support in this region when international men and women's tournaments are taking place is unrivaled and we know that the World Cup 2026 will be on a scale that we have never seen before.

I would like to thank you for your continued support of soccer and wish you best wishes for all the preparations.

Thank you.

Dear FIFA Host Bid Committee,

I am writing today to express our organizational support for New York/New Jersey to be a host region for the 2026 FIFA World Cup.

As a founding team in Major League Soccer, the New York Red Bulls organization has seen first-hand the impact that soccer can have on the local community and also the influence the local community has had on the world's beautiful game.

New York City is one of the most iconic cities in due to its world-famous entertainment venues, museums and sporting venues. Although those are marvels to look at, what makes the New York Metropolitan Area so perfect the biggest sporting event in the world is the diversity of people that reside here. New York and New Jersey are uniquely positioned to host games in one of the most inclusive and multicultural areas in the world, let alone the United States.

While New York City stands as the centerpiece of the region, New York and New Jersey also have a rich history with the beautiful game. Players such as Pelé and Giorgio Chinaglia and the New York Cosmos played in Giants Stadium. World Cup Champions Christie Pearce Rampone, Carly Lloyd and Tobin Heath all are New Jersey Natives. American National Team stars John Harkes, Tony Meola and Tab Ramos all came from the small town of Kearny, NJ. Tim Howard grew up in Patterson, NJ before joining and MLS and making his impact in the English Premier League with Manchester United and Everton.

One will not find another region in the country that has a connection to the game and will support the World Cup as the New York/New Jersey region will which is why we are fully behind the bid to host the 2026 FIFA World Cup.
